

Champéry Bergamo Oberstdorf

C.o.E. Joint Development Camp

The European ISU Centres of Excellence, supported by the ISU Development commission, proudly present a unique training opportunity tailored for single skaters at the Advanced Novice and Junior levels from countries currently developing their programs. Our intensive joint training camp aims to foster skill development, technique refinement, and rules understanding in the sport of figure skating.

Assessment and Selection

The number of participants is limited to a maximum of twenty-four (24) skaters. Each Member can enter up to a maximum of four (4) skaters and two (2) coaches.

However, due to restricted places, it is not guaranteed that all entered skaters and coaches will be accepted.

The skaters will be divided in two groups of up to 12 athletes each.

Only coaches with skaters attending will be accepted.

The assessment and selection of candidates will be conducted by a committee of coaches from the three Centres involved. Entries from Federations that are currently developing their programs will be prioritised.

Join us!

This camp presents a unique experience for skaters and coaches alike, in order to refine their skills, expand their knowledge and become a part of a global Figure Skating community.

Spaces are limited, so seize this opportunity. Looking forward to seeing you on the ice!
